

Scope of Services

The Public Finance Practice at MWH Law Group provides cost-effective, comprehensive legal services for all facets of municipal bond issuances.

Our attorneys have experience handling taxable and tax-exempt deals of any size, including general obligation, enterprise, tax increment financing, and special purpose municipal bonds. Whether to finance major projects or refund obligations, our attorneys are adept at assisting public entities, nonprofits, public-private partnerships, trustees, underwriters, credit providers, and other parties through each phase of the financing process, from negotiation and due diligence to issuance and continuing disclosure.

Whether representing issuers, underwriters, trustees, or financial institutions, MWH Law Group adheres to the highest standard of efficiency and thoroughness.

Our services include drafting and reviewing bond purchase agreements, memoranda, official statements, disclosure documents, and legal opinion letters. We advise our clients on questions that arise during the issuance process, and assist with covenant requirements and regulatory compliance. We also address related concerns, such as site acquisition, enhancements, zoning, and permitting.

Our attorneys work with a range of issuer and obligor entities, including:

- Municipalities and state governments
- Utilities
- Health and hospital authorities and entities
- Housing and development authorities
- Ports, airports, and transportation authorities
- Economic incentive zone and civic development authorities
- School districts and universities
- Public-private partnerships

Our attorneys have experience with a range of public finance securities, including bonds, notes, certificates, variable-rate securities, and revolving facilities.
